If The Sky

Vers 1:

I can't believe my eyes when I look at you tonight true beauty is hard to find

Cause you stand out from the crowd You're an angel in disguise and you're shining inside out

I promise I will never hurt you no matter what You'll never find me with another no you won't I'll stand beside you here forever and you know it's true
Are you standing next to someone you can't live without Let me hear you go go scream it loud

Chorus:

If the sky came crashing to the ground and the world would end I would take your hand and stay right by your side
I will fight for every single day
I will run with you I will die for you cause our love will find a way

Vers 2:

I wanna know, everything about you the smoking mirrors need a clear view Just let it show, all the things that you do Feeling like I'm ten feet tall

Are you standing next to someone you can't live without Let me hear you go go go scream it loud

Chorus:

If the sky came crashing to the ground
and the world would end I would take your hand
and stay right by your side
I will fight for every single day
cause our love will find a way

Bridge:

To young to care
so what happens now?
